ראש השנה (Rosh Hashanah) – Birthday of the World

It is said that the earth was created on the 1st day of the seventh month. The Bible never plainly states what day the earth was created nor does it command or forbid us from celebrating it.

Historically the turn of the year was numbered by different standards. The patriarchs measured years based upon genealogy. After the Exodus, Moses recorded events from the year our fathers left Egypt based on the 1st of Nissan. During the reign of the kings, years were measured based upon the rule of the monarchy. After Judah's first exile to Babylon, years were measured based upon what we know today as Rosh Hashanah.

The first allusion to the day of creation is in Gen 1:1 with בראשית (b'roshiyth). When the letters are rearranged they produce אבתשרי. א is the Hebrew number for '1'. ב is a house and means 'in', 'on' or 'with'. תשרי (Tishri) is the seventh month on the Hebrew calendar (f4). Strung together it states '1st in Tishri'.

Our Messiah is scheduled to return on a future Day of Trumpets.
When we follow the pattern first described by Moses (Ps 90:3, f5) and later emphasized by Peter (2 Pet 3:8), this would be the 1st day of the seventh day which would start the millennial reign.

Let us celebrate Rosh Hashanah, the birthday of the world, with hope and love towards one another.

The Day of Shouting – יום תרועה (Yom T'ruah)

There are four aspects to the Day of Trumpets (f7, f8).

A day of war.

All

A Shout of War!

The Messiah is returning to gather us from the four corners of the earth.

Num 10:2-6

2 Make for yourself two trumpets (חצצרה, trumpet) of silver; of a whole piece you will make them: that you may use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they will blow with them, all the assembly will assemble themselves to you at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation (מועד).

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes (נשי), which are heads of the thousands of Israel, will gather themselves unto you.

5 When you blow an alarm (תרועה), then the camps that lie on the east parts will go forward.

6 When you blow an alarm (תרועה) the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side will take their journey: they will blow an alarm (תרועה) for their journeys. N-KJV added (mine)

The princes represent the 144 thousand (f9). Those that arise and go first are the dead in Messiah (f10). And those that follow are the alive in Messiah (f11). After this the Messiah calls to the nations and they gather themselves together for war.

Zech 12:8-9

8 In that day will the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day will be as David; and the house of David will be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it will come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. N-KJV added

Reader

Rev 16:12-14

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

Joel 3:2,9-14

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

9 Proclaim this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all the heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: there cause your mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat (The LORD will judge): for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Rev 19:11-19

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he does judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he has on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

N-KJV added

Date and Leek (holding the date and leek) (f12, f13).

As we partake of the date and leek, let us remember that war is harsh and that harshness lingers even in victory which is sweet.

Hos 1:3-11

3 So he went and took Gomer (גֹּמֶר, end in failure) the daughter of Diblaim (דִּבְלַיִם, press together); which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel (יֵזְרְעֵאל – יֵזְרַע, seed; אֵל, God; God will sow); for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it will come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah (לֹא רַחֲמָה): for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take (נָשָׂא (nasa), lift up) them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi (לֹא עַמִּי): for you are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, You are not my people, there it will be said unto them, You are the sons of the living God.

11 Then will the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they will come up out of the land: for great will be the day of Jezreel.

N-KJV added (mine)

Most of us know little about our heritage. We have forgotten who we are and where we came from. Not just our connection to ancient Israel, but our connection to the land our fathers came from before America. Yet some of us remember those things. Let us take a moment to remember our fathers.

Partake of the item that reminds you of your ancestry.

None the less it is promised that we would multiply in the nations of our exile and would one day be called the children of the living God. We are living in that day.

- 19. The King James included 'who is to come' which is added. I chose to leave it out in this case as it destroys an important aspect of the verse, namely, that Yahshua isn't coming when this event takes place, he is here.
- 20. The ten Days of Awe are a time of reflection leading up Yom Kippur. Begin each day by reading the Word (Ten commandments) that corresponds to that day from Exodus 20. Think about that Word and measure your life to see where you have fallen short. Repent and take heart to improve yourself in that area over the coming year. End each day by reading the Word that corresponds to that day from Deut 5.
